

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 953432

Monitoring Devices for Overall Fitness of Drivers

Workshop

A common standardized approach to the measurement and detection of drivers' fatigue

Brussels -18/02/2025 h16:00-18:00 European Parliament – Room 1H1

Video announcement and project details: <https://youtu.be/1rLioBcMfGA>

Draft Programme

16h00 - Welcome and Introduction	MEP Carlo Fidanza Filip Negreanu Arboreanu, Deputy Head of Unit "Road transport" DG Move
16h10 –DG Move and road safety policy, research and innovation	Georgios Tzamalīs, Policy Officer, DG MOVE, Unit Innovation and Research
16h40 - The FitDrive project: a general overview	Marteyn Van Gasteren, Instituto Tecnológico de Castilla y León (ITCL) -Coordinator of the FitDrive Project
16h55 - The importance of the early detection of fatigue	Antonio Avenoso, European Transport Safety Council (ETSC)
17h10 Teaching fatigue management in driving schools	Manuel Picardi, European Driving Schools Association (EFA) -
17h25 Call for amendment to regulation (EU) 2018/858	European Professional Drivers Association (EPDA)
17h40 The need of standardization for an effective deployment of FitDrive results: state of the art and next steps	Carlo Polidori (AIPSS); Gianluca di Flumeri (Sapienza University)
17h55 Q&A
18h00 End of meeting
18h30 Cocktail outside the Parliament building- Place Luxembourg (to be confirmed)

Working language: English

Registration Form at this link

(Due to the limited number of seats, the invitations will be sent on the basis of "First arrived, first served" A confirmation of your registration with the instruction on how to get the venue will be sent to the email provided during the registration)